CITY UNIVERSITY LONDON

Lecturer in Diagnostic Imaging

£40,430 - £48,246

City University London is an international University committed to academic excellence with a focus on business and the professions and an enviable central London location. City's academic range is broadly-based with world leading strengths in business; law; engineering; mathematical sciences; informatics; the arts including journalism and music; social sciences; and health sciences.

The School of Health Sciences combines an academic approach with long-established links with London's leading centres of clinical excellence.

We are looking for two experienced Lecturers in diagnostic radiography to join a successful team to participate in the delivery of the diagnostic imaging programmes. You will also contribute to the research agenda of the School through publishing research in high quality publications.

You will be an experienced Lecturer with a current HPC registration. It is strongly desirable that you will either hold a PhD or be studying towards one. You must also have a range of clinical experience within diagnostic imaging.
